Progress on the New Shriners Hospital

Momentum continues to build on moving forward with plans for a new Shriners Hospital on the campus of Washington University. During the second week of July, newly-elected Deputy Imperial Potentate Douglas E. Maxwell called a meeting here in St. Louis with the key players in the planning process. Maxwell, a Moolah Shriner, is chairman of the Imperial Buildings and Equipment Committee. Participating in the meeting were representatives from the architectural firm selected for the project, Gresham Smith and Partners, as well as imperial officers of the Shrine, headquarters officials, local board members and hospital staff. We'll report more as progress continues to develop.

Welcome Ron Krueger!

At this month's meeting of the Board of Governors, we welcomed new member, Ronald R. Krueger, II of Moolah Shriners (and president of locally-owned Wehrenberg Theatres), to his first meeting since his appointment to complete an unexpired term ending in Dec. 2008. Krueger will serve as a member of the Human Resources Committee and the Public & Community Relations Committee.
